

WOMEN OF CALIFORNIA ARE ALMOST SURE TO BE VOTERS

Majority in Favor of Woman's Suffrage in California So Far Is About 1041--Returns Show Steady Increase.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—Un- less another kaleidoscopic change takes place in the present trend of the vote on women suffrage, the women of California have won their fight for the ballot.

Yesterday afternoon, with about 350 precincts to hear from, there was a majority of 1041 in favor of suffrage.

This includes complete returns from only a few counts.

Most of the mining precincts will probably not be heard from for several days.

The steady ratio of gain, however, which set in last night, has been maintained today and it now seems certain that the women have won their battle.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—With about 350 precincts still to be heard from, the vote on woman's suffrage at this hour stands: For amendment, 114,557; against, 113,886. Total majority in favor of the suffrage, 661.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—Returns from 85 additional precincts received from Los Angeles, Alameda and Shasta counties received up to 12:30 p. m., apparently wipe out the slender majority standing against woman's suffrage, and for the first time show a vote in favor of that amendment.

The net result of these precincts show an apparent majority of 31 votes for woman's suffrage.

About 400 precincts, the majority of which are relied upon to show small majorities in favor of suffrage, are yet to be heard from. Many of these will not come in for several days.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—If the present ratio of gain is kept up, woman's suffrage will be shown to have carried last Tuesday's state constitutional amendment by a safe majority.

Belated returns from 68 precincts in San Luis Obispo, San Diego, Fresno, Riverside and San Joaquin counties reduced the majority against suffrage, which stood at 2 this morning at 808 to 356. This shows an average majority for woman's suffrage of about eight votes to a precinct.

LOS ANGELES GRAND JURY ONE YEAR MAKING REPORT

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 13.—After serving ten days less than a year, the grand jury which indicted John J. McNamara, his brother, James B., and six others for murder in connection with the wrecking of the Los Angeles Times building, will make its final report today and be discharged, according to unofficial announcement here. Officials here were unable to find record of any grand jury which had served so long a time.

The jury was impaneled by Judge Walter Bordwell on October 22, 1911. Three days later it concentrated its attention upon the Times explosion case to the exclusion of everything else, the first fruit of its labors being secret indictments returned January 8 against "James B. Bryce, Milton A. Schmidt and David Caplan." On March 14, the same jury found that victims of the Los Angeles Times disaster met death in wreck and fire caused by a dynamite explosion, and on April 1 it returned the indictments against the two McNamaras and against Ortle McManigal, who later signed a formal statement concerning his knowledge of the case.

Since returning the indictments the grand jury has found time to take into consideration other matters, but has returned from time to time to consideration of the case.

Other minor indictments, not connected with the McNamara case, will be returned today.

SERVICE SAID TO BE BADLY DEMORALIZED

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—While the Southern Pacific officials claim that the trains are running with only a normal number of delays, the striking shopmen issued a statement from their headquarters to the effect that the service is entirely demoralized, owing to the company's inability to keep the engines in repair.

President Reguin said that only a few men are working in the local shops and that four negro guards were induced to desert the company yesterday through threats of arrest resulting from the display of firearms.

PHILIP MIGHELS DIES OF WOUNDS FROM ACCIDENT

This forenoon Sam Davis, step-father of Philip Mighels, the magazine short-story writer, who accidentally shot himself while hunting quail near Winnemucca, received the sad news by wire of the young man's death. Reports were being sent out daily from Winnemucca of the wounded man's early recovery, and the sudden news is a surprise to Mr. Davis.

Philip Mighels was the son of the late Harry Mighels, one of Nevada's past editorial and newspaper writers, having died in the early 70's.

The deceased was 37 years of age and a native of Carson City, Nevada. For the past ten years he has resided in New York City with his wife. He had become noted as a novel writer, nearly all of his stories being founded on western facts and scenes. He was at the Bliss cattle ranch, near Winnemucca, to become acquainted with the cowboy habits and life for local color upon a book which he was to write for Harpers & Bros. The young man had a very bright future before him, and had he lived, would have become famed as a novel writer. Besides a wife, he leaves to mourn his death his mother, Mrs. Sam P. Davis of Carson City, two brothers, Hal and Roy Mighels of the same city, and a sister, Mrs. Irving Lewis of San Diego. The funeral will be held at Carson City, probably next Sunday.

May Phil Mighels' slumbers be unbroken; he has gone to his reward.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS AND SANCTUARY LADIES CELEBRATE Delightful Literary and Musical Entertainment Enjoyed By the Societies and Their Invited Friends--Dancing and Banquet.

The Tonopah Knights of Columbus and the ladies of the Sanctuary Society, jointly celebrated Columbus day, last evening. The Knights of Columbus home, where the big social function took place, presented an animated scene from 8 o'clock in the evening until the swa' wee hours this morning, and all voted the occasion of the most enjoyable and successful of any of its kind in the history of Tonopah.

Grand Knight Kelliher started the exercises by introducing J. J. Deagan as master of ceremonies. Under the master's management there was something doing nearly every minute in the musical and literary line until 10 o'clock.

The address of Mr. Frank Mannix upon the "Hopes and Aims of the Knights of Columbus Order and the Life of Christopher Columbus," was a masterly piece and covered the subject thoroughly, being attentively listened to during its delivery.

Then the dancers took possession of the hard-wood floor in the K. C. home, and the way the youngsters (and some "olders") did enjoy themselves in tripping the light fantastic foot was a caution.

The Sanctuary ladies served the luncheon at 11 o'clock. This consisted of fine home-made cake, sandwiches, coffee, salads, pickles, etc., etc.

It is likely that something of a social nature will be given at the home by the K. C.'s and Sanctuary ladies at regular intervals from now on.

The tug-of-war between the Tonopah Extension and Belmont teams is in all likelihood about to transpire and the Extension boys are now in readiness and eager for the fray.

The match, which was to take place on Labor day, was postponed on account of several members of the Belmont team being disabled and out of condition. However, everything is now looking rosy for the big event which is scheduled to take place on October 22d.

There is nothing more to do except for the captains of both teams to get together and draw up the necessary plans and agreements which will govern the contest, and change day a week from Sunday should decide which team is victorious.

Will Recover.

TONOPAH IS TO HAVE NEW PAPER IN A FEW DAYS

Some time during this month there will be launched upon the tempestuous sea of journalism a new paper for Tonopah. The name of the new venture is to be "The Live Wire" and will be published monthly by the students of the Tonopah High School. Their editorial staff is made up of several bright students and their writings show much ability, and proves what our educational system is doing for these young men and ladies. The business manager is a hustler and has a corps of solicitors out gathering in advertisements. He stated to the Bonanza editor today that there were a few mossback business men in Tonopah, and that you could tell them when the first issue of "The Live Wire" makes its appearance by the absence of their advertisements. The paper should be liberally patronized by the business, legal and individual resident of Tonopah. The new publication should be applauded by all.

"Her Crowning Glory" is a Vitagraph Bunnygraph that has the good comedy of John Bunny running through its scenes.
